

6 How many times?

Intro bars 1-2, 7-8

Chorus - swung quavers

A D A

Soprano
How man-y times, Lord, how man-y times? How man-y times must a

Alto
How man-y times, Lord, how man-y times? How man-y times must a

Baritone
How man-y times, Lord, how man-y times? How man-y times must a man_ for- give? Must I for give my bro-ther se-ven times?

4 B⁷ E⁷ A D

man - for- give? - Must I for-give my bro-ther se-ven times?

man for - give? Must I for-give my bro-ther se-ven times?

7 A F#m E⁷ A Verse 1 A

How man-y times must I let him live? He's tram-pled on my feel-ings, he's

Verse 2

How man-y times must I let him live? He's the bane - of my life - I

Verse 3 (Jesus, first time, full second)

How man-y times must I let him live? Not sev-en times, but tram-pled on my corns. When I try to help my ad - can't have an - y fun. He's ne - ver a round when there's a sev - en - ty times sev'n: you have to keep for - giv - ing till you vice he al - ways scorns. I am chew - ing my nails— and I'm job to be done. He knows that I'll for - give him, he get to heav'n. Re - mem - ber God your fa - ther

11 D A

13 B⁷ E A

To chorus after v1,2

15 D A F[#]m E⁷ A

pull - ing out my hair, my head is just as sore as the head of that bear!
To chorus knows I'll let him off, so when I re-buke him all he does is scoff.
All repeat v3, instead of chorus al - ways par-dons you, so for - give your bro - ther till your life is through.
(optional repeat of last 4 bars)