

7 Footwashing at the Last Supper

v1 All

C F G⁷ C C Am G⁷

At the last sup- per, - the dis - cip - les fell out: "I am the great - est" they cried.

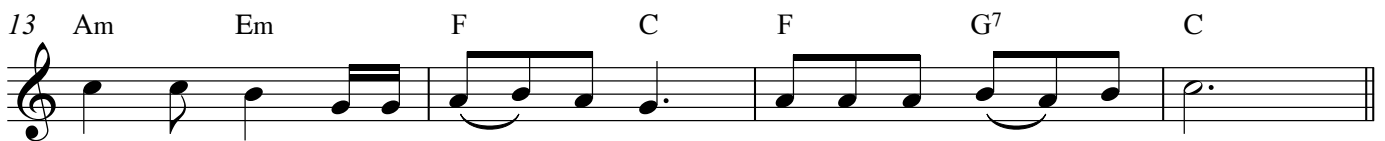

Each one thought they should have the best place at the Mas - ter's side.

v2 Ladies

9 C F G⁷ C C Am G⁷

So Jes - us took off his out - er clothes, poured wat - er in - to a bowl.

Then he washed the dis - ci - ples feet, dry - ing them with - a towel.

17 v3 Men C F G⁷ C C Am G⁷

When he came to Si - mon Pet - er, You'll nev - er wash me, he said.

21 Am Em F C F G⁷ C
(Jesus) (Peter)

"If I don't wash you, you're not one of my own". Then wash al - so my hands and my head.

v4 Ladies

25 C F G⁷ C C Am

Jes-us put back his out - er clothes, re turned once more to his

30 G⁷ Am Em F C F G⁷

place. - He taught them the mean-ing of what they had seen - To treat each oth - er with

v5 All

34 C C F G⁷ C C Am

grace. "What I have done when I wash-ed your feet is an ex-amp - le for

38 G⁷ Am Em F C

you. You must wash one a - no - thers' feet, yes

41 F G⁷ Am F G⁷ C

this is what you have to do. This is what you have to do".